THE TORCH

Presented by
SENIOR CLASS OF 1965

ARCOLA HIGH SCHOOL
Arcola, Illinois

The senior class most gratefully dedicates the 1965 Torch to our principal, Mr. Forsyth. He has been a sincere friend, teacher, and guide to each of us. We feel our high school years have truly been made more beneficial by his presence, and his influence will be taken with us in the future years.

May this book be a small token of our deepest appreciation.

PAULINE LAWRENCE-Secretary

Congratulations to Miss Morris and the Torch staff for another excellent publication. Nothing worthwhile in life is accomplished without dedication, hard work, and sacrifice on the part of those who are involved. I hope the training you have received here in the Arcola Schools will cause you to be sensitive to the needs of others and to want to become involved in helping others. May you spend your life in the improvement of the great institution upon which this nation was founded.

Now that the time has come to say farewell to the graduates of 1965, we do so with mixed emotions. We are happy that you have worked and studied and earned the right to stand proudly as graduates of Arcola High School.

Conversely, however, we regret that there has not been time to give you even more and better preparation, because we are intensely interested in you. Of course, we will miss you.

You are now ready to move to a broader field of knowledge, larger responsibilities, and greater opportunities. We shall watch eagerly for signs and reports of your progress, your success and your happiness. We are fully confident that these will come.

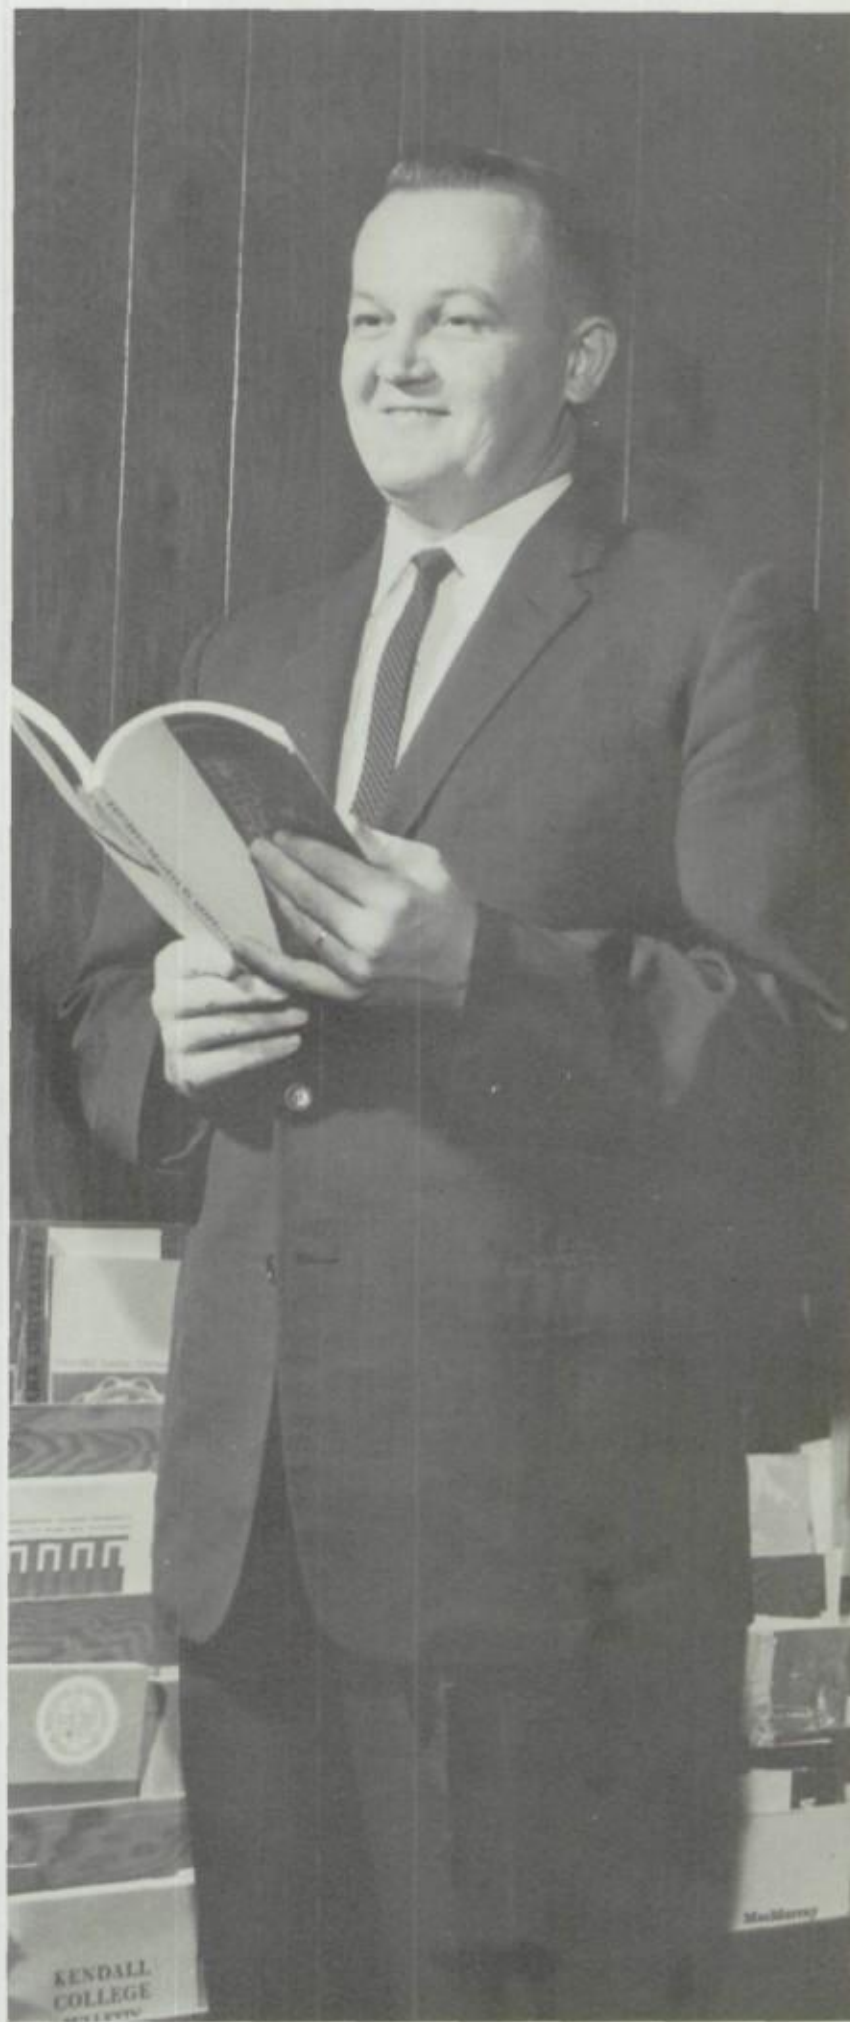

Congratulations to the Class of 1965 for this splendid edition of the Torch.

Arco-Lite

It is a known fact that 9 out of every 10 students don't particularly like school, so those 9 students the first ones at 7:40 and 7:50 everyday? They don't realize it but the teachers, the principal, the secretary much inconvenience.

Mr. Forsythe doesn't have to be at school until 8:00 and the teachers don't have to be at the school until 8:10. When students start arriving earlier than 8:00 it is necessary for someone to be here at the school to be responsible for them. Most students who come early don't have any reason to do and it isn't fair to ask them to come early for them.

In nice weather, students stay in the building at lunch. When the weather is bad, they stay in the gym. Anyone who wants to get permission to leave earlier. By

To the BUS DRIVERS we will new heaters so the people sitting in the back will not freeze.

To the COOKS we will the following books because one will not be adequate:

1. "How to Plan a Balanced Meal"
2. "How to Conserve Leftovers"
3. "How to Clear the Table Quickly" (So there will be no second helpings.)

To the JANITORS we will a bottle of vitamin pills and a broom so they will have enough energy to sweep the floors.

To the STUDENT BODY we will our intelligence, knowledge, and wisdom because they will need it.

The foregoing instrument, consisting of one page, was subscribed on the date which it bears, by the testator, the Class of '65, and at the time of subscribing was declared by them to be their Last Will and Testament; and we, at the testator's request and in their presence and in the presence of each other, have signed such instrument as witnesses.

SENIOR CLASS OF 1965

Prophecy

Class of '65

The year is 1985. This is the 20th reunion of the 1965 graduating class of Arcola High School. The phenomenon is coming to pass at the habitation of Mr. and Mrs. Richard McLane. Mrs. McLane is the former Miss Linda Hood, a retired registered nurse. Richard is the star pitcher for the New York Mets.

First to arrive are Peg and Ron Strange. Ron is the owner of the El Bunno Construction Company which has just completed a 16 lane version of the Golden Gate Bridge connecting Arcola to Chesterville.

The head butler, Mr. Phillip Dennis, opens the door to the banquet hall and admits the famous NURSES FOUR, consisting of Carolyn Miller, Sharon Miller, Linda Still, and Linda Sargent. They are followed by Jean Lichtenberger, Mary Lynn Hudson and Roger Goode who are technicians by profession but really run a gambling casino in the X-ray room. Arriving next is Donna Beavers, who designs ice cream trucks for the "Mr. Softie Company." Donna is followed by Buzz Taylor, a well-known politician from Central Illinois. Arriving next are Doug and Sheila Whipple who are selling surplus Battleships to the different states.

In the distance, we hear the roar of a high winding engine. Yes, it's our team which just won the National Drags consisting of Larry Hopkins, sponsor; Bob Akers, mechanic; and Bob "speed shift" Warner, driver. Jerry Glenn has just finished coaching the Arcola Purple Riders to a victory in the state championship game and was voted coach of the year by both U. P. I. and A. P. His wife, the former Miss Joella Strader, is the school nurse at Arcola High School.

Ted Cox, Dwayne Lindsey and Steve Calhoun are now co-owners and co-editors of PLAYBOY magazine. This month they are doing a feature article on Hollywood's famous Glamour Girl and actress, Colette Portugal. Colette is now acting out a scene from her latest movie "The Ten Timer" for an audience consisting of Jim Lynch, Bill Allen, Steve Bunten and Don Byers. Here comes her producer "our old Senior Class Casonova", Bill Blackwell. Next to infiltrate are a team of well-known physicians, Ron Gardner and Doug Dunagan who have become nationally famous for "How the Nurses Chase Us."

A Japanese airlines has just been flown in by Dennis Simpson and Elaine Runck, owners of Suicide Airlines Incorporated. They bring with them our party girls, Vicky Malin, Jo Anne Gooch, and Sheila True who have received an award for eating the olives out of 10,769 martinis.

Arriving now are 5 teachers from Yale University. They are Bob Hill, Betty Byerly, Karen Haney, Ann Wierman, and Elaine Bryant. Immediately following them is the trio of Karen Jolley, Nancy Miller and Norma Butler who are the worlds' champion tag-team wrestlers. Here comes the beauticians Sheila Wuersch, Janice Tucker, Wanda Alexander, Terry Furlong, and Check Casteel who haven't yet grown hair on bald people but have grown feathers on bald chickens. They are followed by their personal lawyers, Roger Bright and Joyce Cowell. Just arriving are the two engineers, James Miller and Jerry Titus, who have redesigned the Electric Chair. Dennis Anderson is now the owner of the "Oil Can Hairy" Hair Cream Company. Dennis brought with him his private secretaries, Linda Browning, Donna Miller, and Marsha Still, who as a sideline do commercials for underarm deodorants.

Linda and Bill Cunningham, owners of Beaver Dam Angus Farm, will be late because they went to see an ostrich race on the back 40 acres of Nelson Roberts' farm.

Last to arrive is Mike McLane who is the drummer for a well-known band from Liverpool. Mike now goes by the name Ringo.

Everyone is dancing, drinking, and talking about what fun Freshman Day had been. Mr. Forsyth now stands up and says, "You have just witnessed the last class reunion!" But we'll have one anyhow for they're such great fun.
